[illegible]

Dearest Archie,

The opportunity to autograph your book is great but even greater knowing what to say. During the eleven years I've known you I have found you to be a very nice young man. Many ways you are a great guy. Many people find it's hard to put all of them, so I hope you'll understand what I am attempting to say. Your determination, which is very strong will play a great role in your life. I hope you will accomplish all your life's dreams.
Strive for the best, and God will see to the rest.
Remember "Obtain wisdom first, happiness will take its place later". Here's wishing you and yours the best in everything. Best wishes always.

All the World's

a Stage . . .

Theme - 1968

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players" is a fitting theme for this year's annual. The stage is set, the curtain goes up, the scene is a grasping for knowledge. Thoughtful times and inspiring moments have been chosen for the picture story of the year. Each section contributes to the personality of the BULLDOGS. The teachers have set the stage of knowledge, but it is through our efforts that we make the final curtain.

We see the seniors making their exit off the stage at Central while other eager faces make their personage. The yearbook staff hopes this annual will serve as a memorable pictorial synopsis of the drama of life at the old Gold and Blue during the school year of 1967-1968.

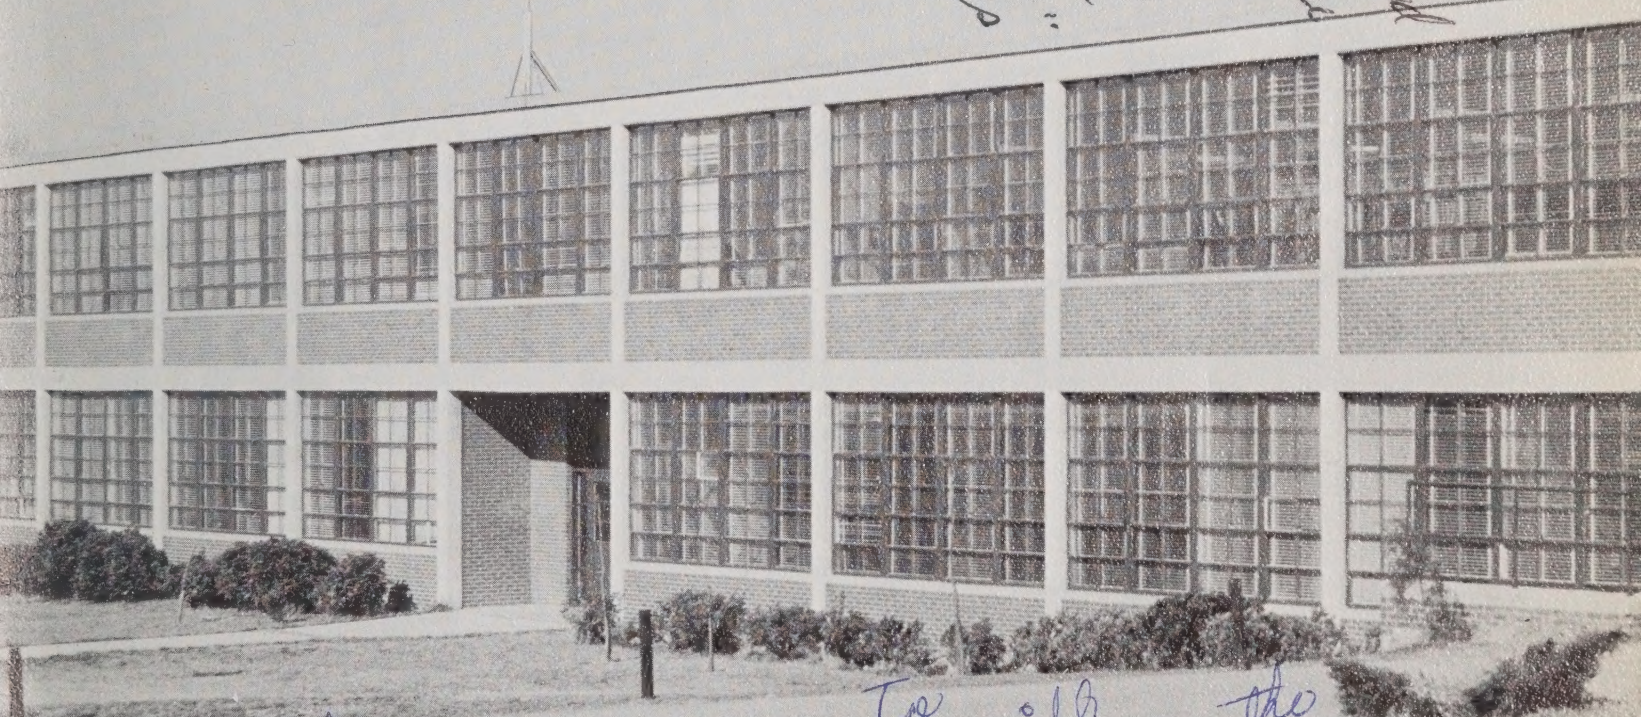

-The Editor-in-Chief-

Hi Archie,
 It gives me great pleasure to autograph

LUNCH PERIOD, the most cherished hour of the school day.

Mrs. Viola K. Sanders

Frankness and complete sincerity command the respect of her students. Students are conscious of her open-mindedness, impartiality, and profound interest in them. They go to her classes with assurance of accomplishment. Her devotion to her work is felt both in the school and community.

To the admired, appreciated, and dearly loved Mrs. Viola K. Sanders, the Bulldog staff dedicates the 1968 Bulldog.

Miss Central of 1968

Dearest Archie,
I will always remember you most as an opponent because of our constant arguing. But in spite of this, you have proved to be a great guy because you set an example worth displaying. "One example is worth a thousand arguments".
Much success
and happiness,

Congratulations Seniors. This is the era of social revolutions. I invite you to join the movement. You are not invited to shoot, cut and destroy the property of innocent people. You are invited to join the revolt against ignorance, poverty, criminal behavior, and prejudice. A trained mind is your best weapon. I urge you to use all possible resources to become a well informed citizen. Continue your education if at all possible in order that you may be a stronger force in making this American democracy the true bastille for your posterity and all freedom seeking people, regardless of race, creed, color or national origin.

Finally, I reinforce my remarks with this quotation by Benjamin Franklin: "If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 20 young people, likely students, posing in a library. They are arranged in two rows, with some standing behind a large, light-colored rectangular table and others sitting or standing in front of it. The background is filled with bookshelves packed with books. The students are dressed in mid-20th-century attire, including suits, dresses, and sweaters.

A black and white photograph showing a group of six people, three women and three men, gathered around a table. They are all looking at and holding papers, appearing to be in a meeting or collaborative work session. The setting is indoors, possibly an office or a classroom, with a bookshelf visible in the background.

You are a very sweet person, and to sweet people, the future is handed to them on a silver platter. It is hard for you to express myself toward you. You possess good characteristics of a wonderful person, and I had to maintain them. Much success and luck are yours for the demanding.
